

Cornell Notes

In this course, you will on occasion be asked to complete 'Cornell Notes.' This will occur mostly when we are working with primary or secondary documents or when you are asked to listen to a lecture or watch a video. Your Cornell Notes should be kept in your spiral notebook for this course and will serve as a helpful study tool if they are done well and correctly.

How to set up your Cornell Notes:

Revising Your Notes:

Circle key words.

Put '?'s' by points of confusion.

Highlight/
Underline Main Ideas.

Compare Notes with a Friend.

Title		Date
Write down the title of the primary or secondary source.
Recall Review the notes column, take main ideas, key concepts, and important facts and write them here. Write questions you have next to chunked information: Ask questions about your notes. Ask questions to help you better understand the main points and concepts.	Notes: Jot down the main points and concepts: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Outline• Abbreviate• Paraphrase Don't mindlessly copy – rephrase what you can to retain information. Skip one line between ideas, several between topics Include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Drawings• Symbols
Summary: Summarize the main points in your own words at the end.

Studying Your Notes

Look over your
Cornell Notes for 10 minutes.

Every...
24 hours

For 7 days