

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

When was Socrates born and who were his two most significant students?

How was Athenian military service decided and what were the different classes/branches?

What was the Acropolis?

What is an oligarchy?

How did Socrates spend a typical day in Athens?

Financially, what made the teachings of Socrates unique?

Socrates felt it was his mission (as commanded by Apollo) to achieve wisdom. What did he do to pursue this goal? Explain in a paragraph.

Socrates had a knack for doing what?

Socrates likely only left Athens once in his life. When was this?

What does it mean for Athenian democracy to be "chosen by lot"?

Who or what were the 'Thirty Tyrants'?

What were the charges placed against Socrates at his trial?

Socrates offered a couple 'alternatives' to execution. What were they and why were they not successful in convincing his jury?

How does one die from hemlock poison?

What is your impression of Socrates? Is he someone you would have liked to observed, listen to or be taught by? Why or why not?

This of a time you gave a strong opinion on something and then were "shut down" by your friend or a family member? How did they bring your opinion into question or argue against you?

When debating someone on a topic you feel passionate about (Justin Bieber, Fallout 4, or the Nickelback), how do you argue your 'case'?

In the space provided write 3-4 sentences about a topic you feel passionate about.